

The Right Match

September 29, 2023

8:30am-4:00pm

eCenter & LindenPointe | Hermitage PA

High turnover costs, reduced productivity levels, and lower organization morale are three consequences of hiring a poor fit employee for your organization. But hiring a right fit employee at any level is not a matter of chance, but rather the result of an effective hiring process. In this course, you will learn the basics of The Right Match Hiring Process, an approach to hiring that will not only increase your company's ability to hire good fit candidates, but will elevate your company's brand reputation as well. This course is appropriate for anyone responsible for hiring. Companies are encouraged to enroll teams.

Presenter: Adina B. Tovell, MBA, M.Ed., PCC

Adina B. Tovell, MBA, M.Ed., PCC is an Executive Coach, Founder of the People Leadership Institute, and CEO of Courage to be Curious, LLC, a boutique coaching and consulting company specializing in developing people centered leaders and workplaces. With roots as an educator, Adina has been a student of people – how they learn, what motivates them, what drives their engagement, and what empowers them to reach their potential for more than 30 years. Adina shared her knowledge and wisdom about how to Live, Lead, and Love with Courageous Curiosity on her podcast show Courage to be Curious with Adina Tovell for five years, has created three card decks that equip people with questions that have the power to transform Life, Leadership and Love, and is a sought after speaker and podcast guest.

#EmpowerWithNWIRC

For more information or to register: www.nwirc.org/events
rkeller@nwirc.org • (814) 217-6068